TRUST RECEIVES $4,000 FROM YORK WATER COMPANY

York, PA, February 16, 2010: On February 5, the York County Heritage Trust received $4,000 from York Water Company in an effort to support the Trust's history education programs. The contribution was made through the Educational Improvement Tax Credit (EITC).

"The Trust is extremely fortunate to enjoy the continued support of the York Water Company for our history education programs," said Joan Mummert, president and CEO of the Trust. "With historic roots dating back to 1816, the York Water Company understands the value of imparting important lessons from our past to our local students in order to help shape our future."

The York County Heritage Trust is a not-for-profit educational institution that preserves and uses its collections, historic sites, and museums to inspire people to explore the history and culture of York County, Pennsylvania.
