TRUST WELCOMES BYRON H. LECATES TO BOARD OF DIRECTORS

York, PA, January 28, 2010: A former member of the Trust's Board of Directors, the Trust announces the appointment of Byron H. LeCates to its Board. LeCates is currently of-counsel to Stock and Leader, where he has practice in the diverse areas of wills, estate administration, real estate and school law. Additionally, LeCates is also a member of the Pennsylvania School Board Solicitors Association.

In the past, LeCates has served on the Board of Directors for the York County Community Foundation and the York County Literacy Council. After completing his undergraduate career at Bucknell University, LeCates served as a captain in the U.S. Army. He then returned to school, graduating from Dickinson School of Law of the Pennsylvania State University. Upon graduation, LeCates served as the Assistant Attorney General for the Pennsylvania Department of Justice and prothonotary of York County.

The York County Heritage Trust is a not-for-profit educational institution that preserves and uses its collections, historic sites and museums to inspire people to explore the history and culture of York County, Pennsylvania.
